Student Code of Conduct & Disciplinary Policy

Introduction

The mission of the Sinclair Community College Code of Student Conduct is to educate students on their rights and responsibilities as college community members; to facilitate an understanding of the balance between individual and college rights; and to promote a safe and inclusive atmosphere conducive to student success.

The college established a Code of Student Conduct to ensure the safety and welfare of the Sinclair Community College community. Students admitted to the college agree to adhere to the rules, regulations and policies set forth in this code. Students are entitled to the same fundamental rights, privileges and immunities that are guaranteed to all citizens of the United States. In addition to their inherent rights and privileges as a Sinclair student, students voluntarily assume the obligation to fulfill the responsibilities of all citizens and bear personal responsibility for their actions. The college has the responsibility to develop policies, procedures and standards, which will ensure protection of the rights of each member of the college community.

The Sinclair president has assigned responsibilities for implementation of the Code of Student Conduct to the senior director for Student & Academic Support Services (SASS) or his or her designee.

Honor Code

The college has adopted the following Honor Code to help students, faculty and staff aspire to high standards.

As a member of the Sinclair College community of students, faculty and staff, I will uphold the values of citizenship, social responsibility, and personal accountability. I will maintain the highest standards of professional and academic ethics. I will uphold my personal integrity, dignity, and self-respect by being fair and honest at all times and by treating all individuals with respect. By honoring these ideals, I will be building a better future for myself, my college, and my local, regional, and global communities.

Key Concepts of the Honor Code

Citizenship—Participating actively in democracy through voting and community involvement and awareness and by protecting our own and other's rights.

Social responsibility—Acting in ways that promote the social good while recognizing the impact of one's behavior on others, maintaining professional ethics at all times, and providing service to the college and the community.

Personal accountability—Accepting responsibility for, and answering for one's own behavior, accepting responsibility for one's own learning, and demonstrating academic integrity.

Respect of self and others—Valuing the diverse perspectives of others, appreciating others' ideas, and protecting the physical and intellectual property of self and others.

Expectations of Students

Students are expected to:

- Be accountable for information contained in the college course catalog, Student Judicial Affairs Code of Conduct Handbook, and any other published regulations relating to student responsibilities.
- Be respectful of the rights of others.
- Comply with the verbal and written directions of college officials.
- Respect and comply with all the laws and rights of good citizenship.
- Respect the freedom to teach and the freedom to learn.

Our Goals:

1. Educate students, faculty and staff on issues related to student conduct, responsibilities, and behavioral expectations in the Code of Student Conduct.
2. Protect the rights of students and the college community.
3. Provide fair and impartial review for students charged with violating the college's Code of Student Conduct.
4. Educate students who have violated the Code of Student Conduct by assigning purposeful sanctions that foster learning, ethical development, and personal integrity.
5. Encourage respect for members of the college community.

Desired Outcomes:

1. Students involved in the student conduct process will demonstrate knowledge of the Code of Student Conduct and the rights of others.
2. Students involved in the student conduct process will be able to identify their rights as students.
3. Students involved in the student conduct process will be able to analyze their responsibilities as college community members.

4. Students involved in the student conduct process will demonstrate a greater awareness of their own developing identity.
5. Students found in violation of the Code of Student Conduct will demonstrate insight into their abilities for ethical decision making.
6. Students found in violation of the Code of Student Conduct will be able to predict consequences for their actions.
7. Students found in violation of the Code of Student Conduct will demonstrate a change in their behaviors.

Making a Student Conduct Referral

If the situation is non-threatening, the process as outlined in the Faculty Handbook should be followed (Faculty Handbook, Section 2.11.4.1). Following this, in cases where the behavior continues causing an obstacle to other students and is disrupting the learning environment a report should be made with the BIT (Behavioral Intervention Team. (http://www.sinclair.edu/about/offices/police/pub/bat_form.cfm) This will initiate the Code of Student Conduct procedures outlined in this handbook.

In most circumstances, discipline for alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct will not be imposed until the code's complaint, hearing, and appeals procedures (if any) are followed.

Any faculty or staff member may contact campus police to have the student removed immediately from class and/or campus at the time of the incident which gives rise to the complaint or to file a complaint at any time with the police or the Student Judicial Affairs manager.

Procedures

Every formal complaint of a violation of the Code of Student Conduct shall be handled in accordance with the procedures described herein:

1. Any student, faculty member, staff member or college administrator may file a formal complaint against a student alleging a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. To be treated as a formal complaint, the complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant.
2. All formal complaints will be referred to the Student Leadership Development /Student Judicial Affairs manager for investigation, mediation, and/or possible resolution.

3. After interviewing the accused student and all appropriate witnesses to the matter, and reviewing documentary and other evidence related to the matter, the Student Leadership Development/Student Judicial Affairs manager may take the following actions:
 - Determine that no or insufficient grounds exist to believe that a violation occurred and dismiss the complaint.
 - Determine there are grounds to believe that a violation occurred, then discuss a resolution with the accused student, which may include the imposition of any sanctions.
 - Determine that sufficient grounds exist to believe that a violation occurred and forward the issue to the Student Conduct Hearing Panel to conduct a formal hearing of the complaint. Prepare a report, including a summary of the complaint and the issues involved, and list of potential witnesses and other persons believed to have information about the complaint.
 - Students have the right to request a hearing by the Student Conduct Hearing Panel for any student conduct charge. The Student Judicial Affairs manager may decline a student's request for a Student Conduct Hearing in order to provide increased due process.
4. If the Student Judicial Affairs manager was involved either in the alleged violation incident, or previously counseled the accused student or the complainant about the matter, the Student Leadership Development/Student Judicial Affairs manager may appoint a designee to hear the case.
5. The SLD/SJA manager who investigated the complaint initially will make arrangements for the presentation of witnesses and information to the Hearing Panel. Both the college and the accused student may identify witnesses or may present witness statements if good cause is provided that the witness cannot be present. The Hearing Panel members and the accused student will be permitted to question each witness and to inspect all documentary and other information. The accused student violator will be allowed to present any witness statements and any other information that the student believes to be relevant to the matter. The hearing will be tape recorded and the tape shall remain the property of the college.
6. At the conclusion of hearing and review of all the information, including testimony, the accused student will be given the opportunity to make a closing statement. After the closing statement, the Student Conduct Hearing Panel will decide, by majority vote, outside the presence of the accused student and any other non-Student Conduct Hearing Panel members, whether the student violated the college disciplinary code. At that time the manager (SLD/SJA) will provide information to the panel about any prior misconduct by the student. Based upon the panel deliberations and any additional information presented, the panel will decide on what appropriate sanctions will be imposed. The college Ombudsman may be included during the deliberation and voting process.

7. The Student Conduct Hearing Panel may recommend any sanction, up to and including dismissal, to the SLD/SJA manager.
8. A recommendation for suspension or dismissal of the student must be referred to the senior director for SASS for approval and final disposition. The decision of the Hearing Panel shall be placed in writing, and the SLD/SJA manager shall send a copy to the senior director for SASS. The SLD/SJA manager will provide documentation that due process has been followed.
9. The senior director has ten (10) calendar days to uphold or deny the recommendation from the Hearing Panel. After the senior director has made a decision on the Hearing Panel's recommendation, the SLD/SJA manager will send the results to the student via certified and regular U.S. mail.

Student Conduct Hearing Panel

Members of the Student Conduct Hearing Panel will include:

- The Student Leadership Development/Student Judicial Affairs manager.
- One member of the Hearing Panel will be designated to serve as the panel chairperson. The chairperson will not vote on a decision unless there is a tie. An alternate co-chair will be selected from the panel members.
- Three (3) students and three (3) alternates appointed by the Student Leadership Association and confirmed by the senior director for Student & Academic Support Services or designee for one (1) year term.
- Three (3) members and three (3) alternate members from the faculty appointed by the Faculty Senate Executive Committee, and a staff representative appointed by Staff Senate, will serve staggered terms.

Note: No hearing shall take place without a minimum of two (2) students, two (2) faculty members and the non-voting chairperson or co-chair present.

The SLD/SJA manager shall schedule a date and time for the Hearing Panel to convene to hear the complaint, taking into consideration the class schedule of the accused student and the availability of potential witnesses and Hearing Panel members. If at all possible, the hearing should take place within thirty (30) calendar days following the referral of the matter to the SLD/SJA manager. The accused student will be sent, via certified and regular U.S. mail:

- Notice of date, time and location of hearing;
- Summary of the complaint;
- Tentative list of potential witnesses;
- A copy of the Student Judicial Affairs Code of Conduct Handbook that contains information about the appeals process, student rights, and a list of possible sanctions.

The student will be informed that the college Ombudsman will be available to assist the student with understanding and following the college disciplinary procedures. While the Ombudsman will not represent the student at the hearing, the Ombudsman or designated counselor, with consent of the student, may attend the hearing to provide procedural assistance to the student. The student may also have any other person or an attorney present at the hearing, but this person shall be an observer only and shall not participate in the hearing.

Appeal Process

If the student should decide to appeal the decision of the Hearing Panel the process is:

1. Write and deliver or mail a letter of appeal to the senior director of Student & Academic Support Services (SASS) within ten (10) calendar days after the student receives notification of the sanction.
2. The senior director for SASS will determine the finality of decisions to grant an appeal and any decision resulting from the appeal process.
3. Appeals are limited to the following reasons:
 - The decision was conducted in an arbitrary or unreasonable manner.
 - The decision was not reached in accordance with the facts presented.
 - The decision was reached through a procedure not in accordance with the Student Conduct Hearing guidelines that was substantially disruptive or not in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

- The sanction is too severe for the conduct violation.

- There was new information not available at the time of the hearing.

4. The letter of appeal must be postmarked or hand delivered within ten (10) days following the date the student received the decision of the Hearing Panel. The senior director for SASS shall review all of the materials submitted by the student, shall review the college file on the matter, may review the recording of the Hearing Panel, and may interview the student and/or other relevant parties.

5. The senior director for SASS may interview any witness or any other person who might have relevant information. At the conclusion of this review, the senior director for SASS shall make a determination as to whether the decision of the Hearing Panel was rendered in a fair and impartial manner, and whether the decision is supported by the information provided.

6. The senior director for SASS shall review whether the sanction imposed is appropriate. The decision shall be placed in writing and a copy shall be sent to the student via certified mail. The senior director for SASS shall complete the review within ten (10) calendar days of the date of receipt of the student's letter, if at all possible.

At the conclusion of the process, all records of the proceedings shall be returned to the Student Judicial Affairs manager for storage and retention in accordance with college policy and applicable laws.

Note: The appeal process may result in no change, a reduction in the sanction that is being appealed or the case may be remanded to the Hearing Panel for a re-hearing.

Removal for Threatening or Disruptive Behavior

There will be occasions when, in the opinion of the instructor, staff or other students, inappropriate behavior by a student involves an imminent threat to safety or threatens to disrupt seriously the classroom or educational process. In these circumstances the instructor or staff member should immediately contact Sinclair Community College Police and have the student removed from the class. The Sinclair Police will develop an incident report and if the behavior is non-criminal will forward the report to the Student Judicial Affairs office for Student Conduct Code review.

Threatening and/or disruptive behavior is subjective. The definition that counts is that of the classroom instructor or staff member at the time of the incident. In cases of uncertainty it is recommended to err on the side of safety. When in doubt call the police. The incident will be immediately managed and the rights and safety of all will be protected.

Temporary Suspension

Students may also be administratively withdrawn from classes as a result of a Due Process Hearing Procedure with either the Student Judicial Affairs manager or the Student Conduct Hearing Panel. Administrative withdrawals may be made when it has been determined that the student's presence on campus is potentially detrimental to the college, faculty, staff, students or themselves.

Students may be temporarily trespassed from campus and/or issued a Cease and Desist Order pending Due Process for a Conduct Conference or a Student Conduct Hearing Panel. This would occur when it has been determined that a student is an imminent threat or poses a danger to self or others.

ORC 3345:23 (Ohio Revised Code 3345:23) Dismissal of Students

This code provides a process to dismiss students and/or not allow students who have been convicted of a crime that occurred on a campus to continue attending that institution or be admitted to another college or university. There may be instances when the Student Judicial Affairs office may need to exercise this option.

Failure to Appear

If a student fails to appear for a scheduled conduct conference or an appearance before the Student Conduct Hearing Panel, the case may be adjudicated and a sanction imposed. The Student Judicial Affairs manager or Student Conduct Hearing Panel will consider the facts presented when making their decision. The student's absence will not be a factor in the determination. The SLD/SJA manager will then notify the student of the decision in writing. If the student is found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct and a sanction is applied, the sanction must be completed by the student in the allotted time or a HOLD will be placed on the student's academic record.

Failure to Complete a Mandatory Sanction

Failure to complete a required sanction is a serious offense at Sinclair Community College. It is considered an additional violation of the Code of Conduct, and will usually result in more serious sanctions being imposed. Students failing to complete sanctions by the required deadlines may be suspended or dismissed from the college. No student who has been dismissed from Sinclair Community College may enroll again as a student.

Disciplinary HOLD on Student Record

Within two weeks of a student's failure to complete a sanction, a HOLD will be placed on the student's records, and any pre-registration that the student might have already conducted. Thus, it is very important for the student to complete sanctions on time and avoid a HOLD being placed on his or her academic records or registration. A HOLD on a student's admission, registration, transcript access or financial aid is not an independent penalty, but may be utilized by the college as a means to either direct a student's attention to subsequent participation in a pending disciplinary (or grievance) proceeding or obtain the student's compliance with a sanction which has been imposed, or other action which has been taken, under the Code of Student Conduct.

Confidentiality

Disciplinary matters are kept confidential to the extent required by law.

Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to educational records. Copies of educational records or personally identifiable information concerning students will not be released to anyone outside the college, except as required or allowed by law, without their written consent. However, directory information may be released without their written consent. Directory information includes: the student's name, address, e-mail address, I.D., photo, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in Sinclair activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance at Sinclair, degrees, certificates and awards received, and the most recent previous educational institution attended. If the students do not want their directory information released, they must complete a form requesting it not be released and file the form with the director of Registration & Student Records.

The Sinclair Student Records Policy is available for review and inspection at the office of Registration & Student Records. A copy is available upon request. Problems or questions concerning the Sinclair Records Policy may be brought to the FERPA coordinator, director of Registration &

Student Records. Students also have the right to file complaints with the U.S. Department of Education FERPA office. Both these acts have strict rules to protect personal confidential information. Questions regarding privacy and confidentiality issues should be addressed to the Registrar's office.

Ombudsman

The Ombudsman will provide assistance to any student faculty or staff member who seeks resolution to a college related problem/issue or concern that needs resolution. The Ombudsman's involvement may include conflict resolution, mediation, coaching or advocacy/support.

The Ombudsman can:

- Cut red tape
- Listen to problems
- Investigate, mediate, facilitate
- Clarify policies and procedures

Students who wish to contact the Ombudsman may do so by calling (937) 512-2205, or stopping by Building 8, Room 8025 during posted contact hours.

Student Non-Academic Grievance Procedures

Students who have a non-academic grievance with the college should follow this process:

1. First, attempt to resolve grievances informally with the person who may be responsible for their dissatisfaction.
2. If no resolution, the next step would be to discuss the matter with the department supervisor or manager involved.
3. If unresolved, the student should take the problem to the dean or the director involved.
4. If steps 1-3 do not resolve the complaint, submit a written grievance to the Ombudsman, Building 8, Room 8025. This written grievance should include:
 - a. Names for all students involved.
 - b. Time and date of incident.
 - c. A description of the incident.
5. The Ombudsman shall review all of the information submitted by the student, shall investigate the incident, to determine if the grievance is supported by the information provided. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Ombudsman in consultation with the Senior Director for SASS will make a decision regarding the complaint.
6. A letter will be sent to the complainant informing him or her of the outcome.

The basis on which a grade was awarded may not be challenged under this grievance procedure (see course catalog and web site www.sinclair.edu). The student involved in this grievance resolution process may request assistance from the Ombudsman at any point during the process. The Ombudsman is not to represent the student grievant, but is only to aid the complainant in defining the issue(s) and in arranging appointments with campus officials. When such assistance is requested, the Ombudsman shall monitor the progress of the case to its conclusion.

Student Academic Grievance Procedures

If a student encounters a problem in a class and wishes to file a grievance, they should follow these guidelines:

1. Talk with the instructor and try to resolve the issue. If that does not work,
2. The next step is to contact the department chairperson;
3. Following this step the student may take the problem to the dean of the division. If the problem has not been resolved,
4. Schedule an appointment with the senior vice president/provost for Instruction (Building 7, Room 7330) to discuss the problem.

Student Petition Process

If a student has questions about a grade recorded for a course, he or she must discuss concerns with the instructor. Since grades are the responsibility of the instructor, generally only an instructor can change an earned grade. These changes must occur no later than two years following the term in which the grade was earned.

Academic Petition Process

Changes for an earned grade in any course—whether failing or not—can be made by the instructor involved. Students may also file a petition in the office of the associate vice president for Instruction no later than two years following the term in which they earned the grade. Such requests usually involve emergency type situations which prevented the student from withdrawing by the deadline date or occurred subsequent to that date and which could be accepted as rendering the student unable to perform the withdrawal process. The student will be asked to submit documentation to verify the circumstances that prevented them from withdrawing by the deadline. For questions, contact the office of the associate vice president for Instruction, Building 7, Room 7330, or call (937) 512-3044.

Academic Integrity Policy

Sinclair Community College is dedicated to the pursuit of truth. The pursuit of truth is grounded in certain core values, including diligence, civility, and honesty. Academic misconduct is defined as any activity which tends to compromise the academic integrity of the college and to subvert the process of education. Any form of academic dishonesty is subject to disciplinary action and could result in failure in a course. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Cheating—Dishonest conduct on an exam or assignment in any of the following ways: use of textbooks or notes not authorized by the instructor; communication with any other student during an exam; looking at another student's paper; obtaining unauthorized copies of an exam prior to the exam time; having someone other than the student take an exam or complete an assignment.

Facilitating Academic Dishonesty—Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism—Submitting an assignment as the student's original work that is wholly, or in part, the work of another without proper acknowledgement.

Academic Administrative Withdrawal

Students may be administratively withdrawn from a class by their faculty member for Nonattendance. Faculty must advise students in writing at the first class meeting what attendance record would constitute cause for administrative withdrawal. If students do not attend the first class, it is the student's responsibility to obtain a copy of all material distributed at the first class meeting.

Safety & Security

Students may access the Sinclair Police web site at: <http://www.sinclair.edu/departments/campuspolice> for information on safety, crime reports/statistics, the department's annual report, and other services. For more information, contact the Sinclair Police department in Building 7, Room 7112 or call (937) 512-2534.

Jeanne Clery Act (Campus Security Act of 1990)

The federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of the Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act requires Sinclair's annual security report to include statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings owned or controlled by Sinclair Community College, and on the public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. The public may obtain a copy of the report by contacting the Sinclair Police at (937) 512-2700 or by visiting: www.sinclair.edu/departments/police

Library Policies

Use of the Library is a privilege extended to Sinclair students to support learning and promote academic success. Through the Library, the college provides students with access to computers, laptops, books, periodicals, study space, tutors and other academic help, comfortable seating, and formal and informal learning spaces. Students are expected to follow college rules defined in the Student Affairs Judicial Code of Conduct Handbook, guidelines, and honor code in order to maintain their good standing and continue to receive library privileges.

In the Library's course reserve program, college faculty place important readings and media in a special collection to assure all students have access to critical information in order to complete assignments. Most reserve materials are designated for "Library Use Only" and may not be removed from the Library. Library reserves are an extension of the classroom, and the faculty and librarians share information about students and borrowed library materials and work together to supervise their use.

General expectations:

- Students are expected to behave in a civil manner that does not interfere with other people using the facility. Excessive displays of affection, wrestling, and similar physical contact activities are considered a disturbance.
- Students are encouraged to use the facility for individual and group work, but students who participate in groups that become disruptive through excessive noise or other disruptive behaviors will be held accountable, individually and collectively, for the group's actions.
- Talking in a normal voice that does not disturb others or quiet cell phone use is permitted in all parts of the Library except the Quiet Reading Room. Playing musical instruments as well as iPod music and similar devices without headphones is considered a disturbance.

- Students are expected to leave the furniture, equipment, and facilities in good condition for the next person's use.
- Food and drink are permitted in the Library in disposable containers, and students are expected to clean up any resulting trash and notify staff of any spills. Trays and dishes from the Marketplace are not permitted.
- Students are expected to follow directions or instructions of Library and college staff.
- Students borrowing materials (books, laptops, or media) are responsible for returning them on time and in the same condition as when borrowed.
- Students may not remove materials designated for Library Use Only from the facility. This includes laptops, course reserves, and any other library property so designated.

- Students are responsible for paying any fines incurred for overdue, lost, or damaged materials charged to their Library and college accounts.
- Students are not permitted to share their Tartan Card with anyone or download or share information with non-Sinclair students.
- Students are expected to obey copyright laws and applicable software licenses.
- Students are expected to follow the policy on Appropriate Use of Information Technology.

Students who violate these guidelines may lose their library privileges, have an academic HOLD placed on future registration, and be referred to Student Conduct. Students who take library material without permission or do not return borrowed material can be charged with a crime.

Any student who has been determined to have engaged in harassment in violation of this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or dismissal in accordance with the Sinclair Code.

Smoke Free Campus Policy

In 1988 the Sinclair Board of Trustees, upon the recommendation of a campuswide committee, adopted a smoking policy that prohibits smoking in designated locations on the campus. Because of the continued concerns about the health and comfort of the Sinclair community, the committee, faculty, staff and student groups recommended in 1993 that Sinclair's campus is smoke free.

The state has recently released detailed directives regarding the recently passed non-smoking law. Sinclair has designated smoking areas as listed below.
