Student Rights and Responsibilities

The principles expressed in Keene State College's Mission and Values Statement guide our campus community. Joining our student body, faculty, staff, administration, or any campus organization signifies a commitment to these principles by both the individuals and the organizations. We expect all members of our community to comply with these principles, thereby sustaining and contributing to the community envisioned in our Mission and Values Statement.

Keene State College believes that with rights come responsibilities. You have the right to expect the College to foster an environment which advances your intellectual and personal growth. As a member of the Keene State College community you have a responsibility in creating an atmosphere conducive to this growth.

Statement on Sexist Language

Keene State College, as a public institution of higher learning, is committed to equal educational opportunity. In order to provide an academic environment that accords dignity to all of its members, Keene State College will not tolerate language that is sexist and promotes negative stereotypes and demeans members of our community. It is the intent of the College that all College communication shall be free of such language.
