

#4.24 - Telephones

No person shall use any telephone or other communications device to harass, offend or disturb any other person, nor shall any person use threatening, obscene, immoral or insulting language over any telephone or other communications device. No person shall use any telephone or other communications device to summon emergency service of any type as a prank or otherwise when such service is not needed.

© 2012 Oakland University | Privacy Statement | Policies & Regulations | Emergency Preparedness | NCA Self-Study | Webmaster | 